

Spendency named a 2019 Spend Matters Provider to Watch

PRESS RELEASE

Swedish spend analysis tool Spendency selected to global ranking list

April 8, 2019, 15.00 CEST

STOCKHOLM - Spendency AB has been named a 2019 Provider to Watch by Spend Matters.

Spend Matters released its 6th annual '50 Providers to Watch' lists today in conjunction with the annual ISM conference in Houston, Texas.

The recognition highlights Spendency's spend analysis tool which provides users a unique user experience and great user friendliness.

This marks the first year that Spendency AB has been recognized as a Provider to Watch by Spend Matters.

Spend Matters routinely reviews the latest procurement technology and service offerings to help organizations make wise and effective vendor selection decisions. The 50 Providers to Watch/Know lists are the result of deep analysis and corroboration among all Spend Matters analysts and reflect the publication's unbiased, independent view of the organizations to know and watch.

- "We are very happy for the recognition as Provider to Watch. It marks a milestone in Spendency's development and also confirms what both we and our clients think, that Spendency is a unique tool in terms of user friendliness and usability. We will continue to develop the tool keeping the clients needs in focus. Over the coming years Spendency will expand to new geographies so that every procurement organization can have quick, easy and reliable access to spend data", says Nils Lundgren CEO of Spendency.

- "In the near future we will launch new AI based functionality which will make the categorization process even smoother. We also hope to communicate a strategic partnership with a major platform that will make transaction data even easier to integrate with Spendency", says Adam Skogman former Engineering Manager and architect at Apple and now CTO of Spendency.
